MARK BODE' VS. THE MICE

"This comic is not dedicated to the rat in my attic who wakes me up every night."

—Mark Bode'

FRONT COVER: Mark Bode' Design Markers

BACK COVER: John Flores & Bode'

MARK BODE' may well be Alternative Comics' first second-generation cartoonist. He got his start in comics at age five, drawing while sitting on the lap of his famous father Vaughn Bode'. After Bode' senior's untimely death in 1975, Mark carried on the family tradition. His first professional job came in 1978 when he was 15, coloring his father's story "Zooks" for Heavy Metal Magazine.

In 1981 Mark attended the School of Visual Arts in New York City. While there he met Archie Goodwin of Marvel Comics, and began working for Epic Illustrated. He inked and colored The Yellow Hat and The Adventures of Cheech Wizard, which had been written and pencilled but not completed by his father.

Bode's most recent project was Cobalt 60. With the help of Dr. Atomic writer/artist Larry Todd he developed the 10 page story written by Vaughn Bode' into a 130-page book, which was serialized in five issues of Epic Illustrated and will appear as a graphic novel to be published sometime in 1986.

The Miami Mice Comic is Mark Bode's first solo effort.

ME THE DEAL AT MAMIE'S
DISCO... THEN I'LL GIVE YOU THE CHEESE!...

LATER AT THE DISCO...
BOOM TISH BOOM BOOM TISH BOOM TISH BOOM BOOM TISH BOOM BOOM

SHE LOOKS LIKE A USER,
THAT MUST BE OUR GIRL...
I'LL GO GIVE HER A TRY...

HEY HONEY, WHY
DONT YOU AND I GO
FOR A SKITTER IN MY MOUSARATI?

I DONT GO FOR
MICE WITH NO
SOCKS IN BRAIN

WELL, I JUST HAPPEN TO HAVE SOME MONEY TO INVEST IN SOME OF THE
HARD STUFF.

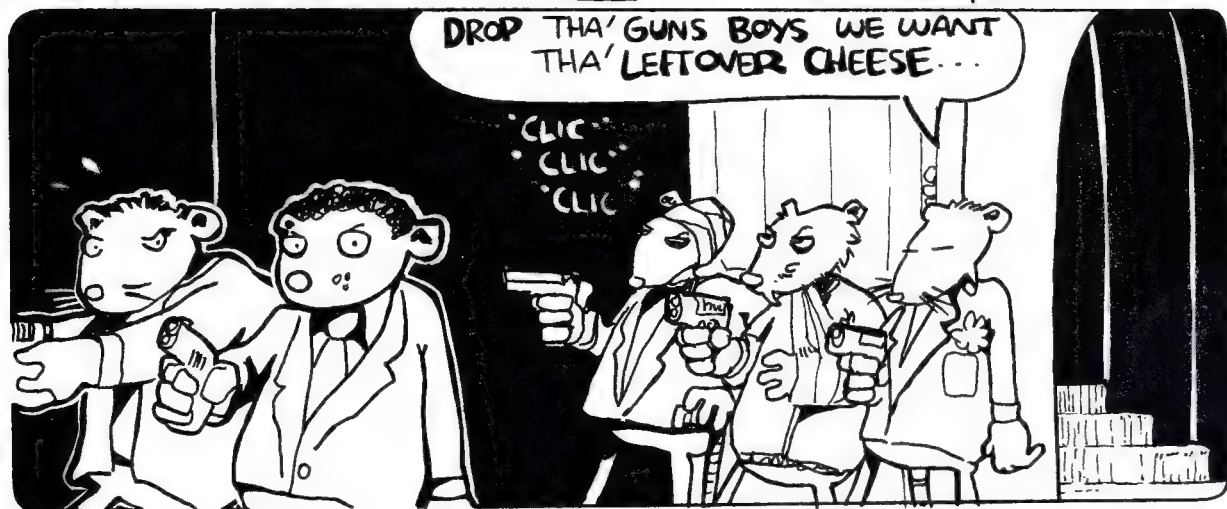

KA-PUNT!
